

Opportunities for General Operatives

Rosderra Irish Meats Group a leading provider of safe, high-quality foods to the global marketplace are looking for enthusiastic and competent people to join us as General Operatives at our Curing Facility in Jamestown Co. Leitrim where full training will be given to staff interested in developing a career in the food industry.

Rosderra Meats has a world-renowned reputation in the Meat Industry and this is a great opportunity to join a progressive food industry leader supplying world markets with the highest quality products.

You will receive certified training in food safety and quality assurance and also receive certified training in health & safety and lean manufacturing tools and techniques. Rosderra Meats operates on a team basis with employees playing an active part in the day to day process and it promotes a continuous improvement environment for staff to develop their careers. Immediate Start, Full time 39 hours per week with competitive rates and great opportunities to progress your career.

Should you wish to be considered for the above position please apply in writing to: Rosderra Irish Meats Group, HR Department, Jamestown, Co. Leitrim

Alternatively, email your application and CV to Joe Gilligan – HR Manager at jgilligan@rosderra.ie